

FREE TRAINING OPPORTUNITY:

HOW THE SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION CAN HELP THOSE RE-ENTERING THE COMMUNITY AFTER INCARCERATION.

DATE: May 17, 2023 from 10-11:30am AKST

WHERE: Online

PURPOSE: To provide staff that work with justice-involved people guidance on the SSA application process and tips for applying for benefits.

TARGET AUDIENCE: Staff that serve or work with justice-system involved clients that have received social security benefits or may qualify. Training is appropriate for both novice and experienced staff. Time will be allotted for Q&A.

PRESENTER: Kirk Larson is the Washington Public Affairs representative for the Social Security Administration and has worked with the agency for over 30 years in both technical and supervisory roles. Mr. Larson has presented Social Security information in both the Seattle and San Francisco Regions, and has had several articles published and appeared on TV and radio shows to discuss Social Security topics.
